FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Shri Bhayyaji Pandharipande National Institute of Social Work established in the year 1968, with a view to train students in professional social work, and prepares manpower for social welfare and social development. The institute is affiliated to the Rashtrasant Tukodoji Maharaj Nagpur University has a proud tradition of over Fifty One years of social work education. The institute's vision is “to determine for excellenc in social work education”.The instutute is providing the training to train persons for professional practice and for leadership roles in the social services and the social work profession. The institute has the benefit of having a very progressive and active governing body (management) dedicated to the cause of the development of the college. It helps the institution in raising additional resources which are utilized for strengthening the infrastructure and meeting welfare needs of the students.

BPNIWS aims at “Excellence in Social Work Education”. The primary aim of this prestigious institution is to lay more emphasis not only to develop the technical skills of our students, but also to nurture professional competency, self-confidence, managerial abilities and entrepreneurial development. To meet the needs of the present day, job oriented, socially relevant and innovative course like social work, has been introduced. This course enables the students to develop their professional skills for a prospective, meaningful employment.

I am extremely happy that the annual report committee of the institute is bringing out the annual report for the session 2019-20. The efforts made by the committee members are worthy of praise. I wish all stakeholders students the very best.

Dr. A. S.Barde

5. Learning to take the responsibilities on behalf of others.

During the educational tour, following agencies were visited by the students and collected relevant information by observing and collecting facts from the agencies administration.

1. : Achary Vinobaji Bhave's Ashram Pavnar:

Vinoba Bhave set up his Pavnar ashram in 1938 at the bank of Dham River which is 9 kms. of Wardha and 6 kms. away from Sewagram. Vinobaji was mainly observing Satyagraha and doing spiritual work in Pavnar ashram. Pavnar is the capital of Vakataka dynasty during the region of king Pravarsena. During the excavation for construction of the ashram, many sculptures and idols were found which are restored and displayed at the ashram for public view. When Gandhiji started the individual Satyagraha in 1940, Vinobaji was selected as the first individual Satyagrahi. Vinobaji Started a Bhudan Movement (Land Gift) in 1951 and related activities from this ashram. Bramha Vidya Mandir is located within the premises of Pavnar Ashram. This was established by Vinoba Bhave in 1959. It is now run by women from different states of India for common spiritual attainment. The women live a deeply contemplative life by contributing to the cause of the society. The women are actively involved in Rishi Kheti (i.e. earning livelihood from farming with simple, inexpensive tools, without the help of bullocks that are within the reach of the poor), spinning, manual labor and other works related to the management of the ashram.

2. Center of Sciences for Villages, Maganwadi, Wardha:

Center of Sciences of Villages (CSV), started functioning in 1976 by its founder Chairman and Director Late Dr. Devendra Kumar from the premises of Maganwadi in Wardha from where Mahatma Gandhi began the All India Village Industries Association (AIVIA) in 1934 and Dr. J.C.Kumarappa gave shape to Gandhian concept of Rural Economy. The idea behind the centre was to establish a place, which could act as a center for transfer of technology and be a bridge between the portals of National Laboratories and doors of the Rural Mud Huts. Vision and Mission of center of Sciences are as follows:

- To work towards a holistic and futuristic development of the small community based centralized village economy.
- To develop and demonstrate appropriate rural technologies which are ecologically sound, economically viable and socially just.
- To develop the villages and arrest the erosion of its talent by promoting rural non-farm activities.
- To collect and document scientific and technological information for rural areas, by establishing a good database and information system and disseminate the same through publications.
- To provide a forum to rural innovation with specialists and experts in science and technology, to provide them with necessary science and technology inputs to optimize innovated processes and products.

Since last three decades CSV is working on Rural Technologies, specially doing Research, Field Trials, Field Extension, Networking, Training, Publications and Policy intervention. The institute's Dattapur campus organize wide variety of activities exhibiting the application of alternate technologies for rural areas both through models as well as through hand on practices in their own facilities. CSV also provides training to artisans, self help groups, micro-entrepreneurs and development practitioners on alternate technologies.

3. Leprosy Hospital cum Rehabilitation Training center, Manohar Dham, Dattapur, Wardha:

Leprosy hospital cum rehabilitation training center was run by Maharogi Sewa Samittee born out of the first indigenous effort to take up leprosy service in India. This institute founded by Shri Manohar Balwant Diwan in 1936, it was considered to be a pioneering effort under one of the important constructive programme of Mahatma Gandhi and Vonoba Bhawe. The institute was formulated on the principles of Sarvodaya. The main aim of foundation of this institute behind was Mr. Diwan noticed many leprosy affected people begging, one day he saw a leprosy patient quenching his thirst from a gutter, because he was not allowed to take water from a public tap. This came as a shock to Diwan and he took a vow to change the fate of lepers. He set up center to meet and treat patients at Yelakeli, Yaygaon, Kharangana, Sello, Sindhi, Hinganghat , Anji and Deoli and finally established a full-fledged leprosy hospital-cum- rehabilitation training center at Dattapur. Now a day's 105 patients' are taking medical treatment and rehabilitees in the institute.

4. Bapukuti Campus Visit at Sewagram, Wardha

When Mahatma Gandhi started his padyatra (foot march) in 1930 from Sabarmati Ashram to Dandi for the Salt Satyagraha, he had decided not to return to Sabarmati till independence for India was not attained. Independence was not attained at that time and Gandhi was imprisoned for more than two years. On his release he spent some time travelling. He decided to make a village in Central India his head quarter. He came to Wardha in 1934; at the invitation of Shri Jammalalji Bajaj. In April, 1936, Gandhiji established his residence in the village Shegaon which is he renamed as Sewagram, which means 'Village of service'. Gandhiji was 67 years old when he came in Sewagram. From then on, Sewagram has become an inspiring place. Many decisions on import anti national matters and movement were taken at Sewagram. It became the central place for a number of institutions for the nation building activities devised by Gandhiji to suit the inherent strength of this country. This Gandhi Ashram was the second place to Mahatma Gandhi. Main attraction being the Bapukuti which houses most of the personal artifacts used by Gandhiji. One of the unique things kept here is the massage table and the pot that Gandhiji used. The walls are well decorated and the overall atmosphere is sublime and serene. You may find a few people handling the Charkha. A prayer meeting is held once in morning and once in the evening. The places designated to Gandhiji's secretary- Mr. Mahadebhai Desai, Babu Kuti- residence of Gandhiji, Ba-kuti- house of Kasturba Gandhi, last residence of Gandhiji, Prayer place, Nayee Talim etc.
